

Committee Roles

The key responsibilities of the committee members include

Chair.

- To organise and chair regular Society Committee meetings and ensure completion of action points.
- To provide oversight to ensure that the Society continues to develop in accordance with the Constitution.
- To report to the Board of Trustees regarding activities and future plans (for approval where required)
- To liaising with partner organisations and funders with respect to Society activities (e.g. conferences, training events, fundraising events)
- To represent for the Society at public and media events should this be required
- To organise and Chair the Society AGM

Ordinary member

- To attend committee meetings and participate in committee discussions
- To act as a voice for ordinary members at the Society committee and provide feedback to the membership.
- To represent for the Society at public and media events should this be required.
- To take on specific roles within the committee including treasurer, web master, meetings secretary, if required.

Early Career researcher representative

- To attend committee meetings and participate in committee discussions
- To act as a voice for ECR (including PhD students, Postdoctoral scientists and fellows) at the Society committee and provide feedback to the ECR community.
- To encourage ECR to participate in society activities
- To help in the organisation of the ECR Platelet Society conference
- To represent for the Society at public and media events should this be required